Treasurer's Report

Treasurer's Report for month ending June 30, 2021 was read and submitted pending audit.

President's Report

President Suski reported on the status of negotiations. We have a TA in place. More news will be shared as it comes in.

Secretary Report (vacant)

N/A

Vice President's Report

Nothing to report.

Chief Steward Report (vacant)

President Suski reported there are no new updates on grievances and arbitrations. There was an employee from the Board of Nursing with an issue though limited information can be discussed at a General Membership meeting.

Field Representative

Field Rep Matt unexcused. Roberta reiterated that the Council 5 Conference will take place in Duluth as noted last meeting. More information to come.

Nothing to report

Old Business

President Suski reported that there are no new updates on the HLB move. She also noted that the freeze on hiring seems to have been lifted. Budgets for FY22 are in place. She also asked that members please report if there are any issues needing our attention.

Website updates regarding the 2021 GM Meeting minutes being uploaded by our webmaster Marti Benson.

Question and discussion about the merger with Local 2829. President Suski reported that she will be meeting with the 2829 Executive Board and General membership next week to answer any questions they have about our local. President Suski suggested we meet in person sometime soon afterwards as a group to review, discuss and amend Local 920's constitution. She then outlined the steps needed to bring a merger with another local to fruition. Not a quick process.

New Business

Discussions about Work-Life Transitions at MDH.

Meeting adjourned at 7:50 pm

Respectfully Submitted,

Liz Arita, Treasurer
